NOVEMBER BEAUTY FAVES AND LINK UP

Now on to November Beauty faves! Here are the products deserving the #endlesslove ranking in my personal beauty blogger awards! Sostantia anti-ox serum by Incoderm is made exclusively of hyaluronic acid, water, and essential oil of myrth, rich in vitamin E. Delicate while effective, lightweight and totally dermo-friendly, it's my go-to serum in the morning. Calming day lotion by Bruno Vassari is a special hydrating lotion for sensitive skin. I apply it every morning before makeup and the my skin feels plump and smooth all day long. City Zen lotion by Mediterranea Cosmetica is a micellar water enriched with special detoxifying ingredients. I use it to remove makeup and before my bedtime routine. Another fave is Midnight recovery eye cream by Kiehl's: I've introduced it before in this post and I keep considering it an excellent eye cream, very nourishing and soothing for the delicate eye-area. Have you tried any of these bunnies?
